

The Ultimate Weekend Getaway Guide For L.A. Girls

SHARE IT

COMMENTS

SEE ALL SLIDES 6 OF 20

La Jolla

When you're after sunshine and dazzling ocean views, no place will do but La Jolla — San Diego's crown jewel, and a breathtaking beach town 110 miles south of L.A. Both shirtless surfers and sophisticated shoppers share space on the sidewalk here, and the downtown area is filled with boutiques, casual and upscale eateries, and art galleries. La Jolla also boasts a dramatic coastline featuring sea cliffs and sand coves. Exploring the beaches is a must, whether you're here for a romantic getaway, thrill-seeking adventure, or family vacation.

PHOTO: GETTY IMAGES.

ROAD TRIP IDEAS / FALL ROAD TRIPS FROM LOS ANGELES

Where To Drink

Cusp Dining & Drinks

Cusp, located on the top floor of Hotel La Jolla, serves up glittering Pacific Ocean vistas alongside craft cocktails mixed with fresh juices and house-infused spirits.

Cusp Dining & Drinks, 7955 La Jolla Shores Drive (at Torrey Pines Road); 858-551-3620.

Nine-Ten

At this bar, located inside the Grande Colonial Hotel, you'll find a good-looking happy-hour crowd indulging in inventive drinks with cheeky names, like Flight of the Bumble Bees and Monks in a Mosh Pit.

Nine-Ten, 910 Prospect Street (near Girard Avenue); 858-964-5400.

La Jolla Brewing Company

This comfortable pub champions local brews, including their own hand-crafted beer and a rotating selection of San Diego craft beers. Sip a cold one next to a fire pit on their outdoor covered patio.

La Jolla Brewing Company, 7536 Fay Avenue (near Pearl Street); 858-246-6759.

PHOTO: COURTESY OF NINE-TEN.